

Sawara Ward Children's Plaza Seinan Kodomo Plaza (Seinan Children's Plaza)

'Kodomo Plaza' is a facility established by Fukuoka City in each ward, where infants and young children, along with their guardians, can freely visit and play at any time.

'Seinan Kodomo Plaza' was established on February 4, 2007, through the collaboration between Fukuoka City and Seinan Gakuin University.

The plaza is operated by Seinan Gakuin University under commission from Fukuoka City.

※As one of Fukuoka City's 'Baby Stations,' the plaza also provides facilities for breastfeeding and diaper changing.

About the Logo Mark

The logo mark of 'Kodomo Plaza' features a parent and child dove, symbolizing peace and love. Also, the color green is a shared symbol of Sawara Ward and Seinan Gakuin University.

Nursing Room

Mini workshops are held monthly

We invite guest speakers from both inside and outside the university to hold workshops on a variety of topic-not limited to parenting. Your child is welcome to play nearby while you attend the workshop together.

Storytime is, in principle, held monthly

Storytime with picture books is provided by volunteers. Children can also enjoy finger games and traditional nursery rhymes.

Public Health Nurse Day is held monthly

This is a consultation day with a public health nurse. Feel free to consult us about developmental concerns or any worries related to child-rearing. We can assist with a wide range of topics including breastfeeding, weaning foods, vaccinations.

Childcare Support Concierge Consultation Day is, in principle, held monthly

We provide information and consultation on childcare services (such as daycare centers, kindergartens, and temporary care) tailored to your family's needs.
 ※Not held every month. Reservation required.

Together★issho Day is held intermittently

It's a day to create many opportunities for "Nice to meet you," such as together with Dad, together with Grandpa and Grandma, together in English, and together in sign language.
